

REPhoto REAL ESTATE PHOTOGRAPHY

Richard Taverna
Photographer

Graduating in 1989 from The Fashion Institute of Technology, Richard worked creatively in graphic design in Manhattan for over eighteen years before moving to the East End in 2007.

It's here that he found his true passion, Real Estate Photography, and RE Photo was born.

Over the last few years, Richard has photographed some truly majestic estates here in The Hamptons and throughout Long Island.

Richard's work is featured in local newspapers, trade magazines and online. The listings Richard is shooting are consistently selling and renting.

The feedback from agents and homeowners alike is always positive, describing him as professional and courteous.

Ellen K. Goldberg
Marketing Manager

Ellen graduated from college in 1982. She enjoyed a successful career in Manhattan for twenty five years before making the move to The Hamptons.

Ellen has always had a passion for Real Estate, so partnering with Richard and RE Photo made perfect sense. She is responsible for scheduling shoots and building client relationships. Customer satisfaction is always her number one priority.

Ellen is integral in the creative process of all promotions and advertising. Overseeing these projects as well. With her flair for style and attention to detail, she often assists on photography shoots.

Ellens' unique combination of business savvy, creative thinking and sophistication make her invaluable to RE Photo.
